Paphos

The city of Choice

Nowhere in Cyprus is there a diversity of modern culture and fascinating heritage, Paphos is a city rich in history and culture believed to be the birthplace of Aphrodite, the goddess of love and beauty. Paphos proudly boasts the remains of villas, palaces, theatres, fortresses and tombs that belonged to the Classical, Hellenistic and Roman periods. A site with remarkable architectural and historic value that has been embedded in the legacy of its past ancient history and has thus been included in UNESCO's list of world heritage sites as a natural and cultural treasure.

Whether its golden beaches, lavish nightlife, or ancient archaeological sites you want, then Paphos is the right place for you.
